

Frontrow™ To Go

The Sound Distribution System that goes with you

Easy and completely portable
INSTALLATION FREE

For use in general or special education classrooms, conference rooms, senior centres or training facilities.

240V mains connected or built in battery power so it goes where you want, in an easy to use, all-in-one package. The all-in-one receiver and speaker can be easily moved To Go where you want to teach.

Frontrow™ To Go is a unique active learning system combining performance, quality, functionality, and ease of use, allowing you to take the class outdoors for study or play.

Unlike traditional portable sound reinforcement, this system's simple easy to set up and operate column speaker directs sound to effectively increase speech comprehension outdoors.

As well as your standard handheld FM radio microphone, it comes with an additional hands free microphone – making it the ideal choice for those with busy teaching hands.

BENEFITS

- Reduced vocal fatigue for teachers.
- Increased clarity of speech improving student concentration, behaviour and performance.
- Provides good listening experiences outside the classroom maximising learning opportunities.
- Increases test scores and class participation.
- Improved attention and behaviour.

FEATURES

- Excellent sound quality
- Portable, light weight
- Easy to operate and recharge
- Team-teaching ready
- Connects to personal FM
- Packs away in a black carry bag
- Affordably priced

*TM - Trademark of Phonic Ear Inc, USA
Product specifications and/or availability may change without prior notice.*

ClearaSound
BRINGING CLARITY TO HEARING